Description of sub-themes

Beyond Barriers - Co-creating in complexity and adversity

Barriers are varied in tone, texture and location. While some barriers are internal to the individual – beliefs, mental models, shadows, defenses and perceptions, some are external to the individual caused by social and cultural factors. When pushed and confronted, humanity has risen to negotiate or break the barriers. Individuals and groups venture beyond familiar patterns and create an entirely new reality with new paradigms. Rising beyond barriers requires creative ways of being, sensitivity to the trade-offs and continually shaping the generative outcomes.

Emerging Trends – Economics, Emotionality and Society

Economics is a field critical to survival and growth of societies but often takes a reductionist view of the 'human' as a statistic. Social sciences are another field that talks about societies and groups but takes a polar view to Economics. Applied Behavioural Science could be a bridge that connects these disparate fields. Harnessing human emotions and economics to shape a thriving and prosperous society is the focus of this sub-theme.

Continuity in change - Honoring Ancient to Contemporary Spiritual Practices

Change coexists with that which is eternal and timeless. Spiritual streams of thought like Yoga Sutras, Taoism, Buddhism, Sufism etc. embody that which is timeless. Co-existing with these are contemporary practices like Neurosciences, Quantum Physics, Process Work etc. This subtheme offers a space to showcase convergence of these themes and the application and impact of such practices in groups or organizations.

Papers and workshops are invited that cover these subthemes of Emergence at the Individual, Community/Group and Institutional/Organizational levels. Workshops need to be in an engaging design that enable experiential learning for the participants – through participative or exploratory processes. If deeper human processes were to emerge within the group, the facilitator needs to have the required expertise in bringing the group to closure within the given time.

Paper Submission Guidelines and Timelines

You are required to submit an abstract initially. The abstract, which is a summary of your paper's substance, should include 5 key words, title of the paper, its purpose, methodology, analysis, conclusions and implications.

- The acceptable word range for the Paper / Workshop Abstract is 250 -300 words
- The acceptable word range for the IdeaSplash Talk is 150 - 175 words
- All submissions should be in English
- Please send in a brief author's biography with the Abstract. After submitting the abstract you will receive an email with your abstract id / access code. In case you would like to make any changes or corrections to a submitted abstract, you could use your personal access code. Corrections are permissible until the deadline: 15th April 2021.
- A communication regarding acceptance / rejection of the submitted abstract will be sent to you through email, by 30th April 2021

If you face any problem while submitting the abstract or you do not receive a confirmation by email, please mail us at papers.abssummit@isabs.org

Author Guidelines

- Papers submitted to ABS summit 2021 should follow the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 7th ed. All manuscripts must meet the requirements of style established in this manual.
- Manuscripts must be double-spaced (including lengthy quotations, endnotes, references, tables, and appendix materials)
- Manuscripts should not exceed 15 pages (excluding abstract, references, tables and figures)
- The length of the paper should not exceed 4000 words.
- Margins must be at least one inch on all sides.
- Each table and figure must appear on a separate page, with its location indicated in the text (e.g., “Table I about here”) on a separate line.
- On the cover page, provide the manuscript title, names of all authors, and all authors’ professional titles, affiliations, and complete addresses, including phone number and email id. The cover page should also include any acknowledgements, credits, and grant information. To ensure anonymous review of the manuscript, do not include on any other pages any information that could identify authorship.
- Following the cover page, provide a page with the paper title and an abstract of no more than 250-300 words. The abstract should accompany five key words and follow the format explained in annexure-II. Do not use footnotes; provide endnotes on a separate page immediately following the text, under the heading NOTES. Endnotes should offer significant statements, not merely cite references.

The Summit Academic Committee will revert to you within the stipulated timeline. Reviewers’ comments would be e-mailed to authors whose submissions undergo blind review.

Papers published previously in any journal or presented in any conference are not acceptable for ABS Summit 2021

ABS Summit is strictly against simultaneous submission. Submission of a manuscript clearly implies a commitment to publication with ABS Summit and Indian Society for Applied Behavioral Sciences (ISABS) only. ISABS reserves the right to copy edit manuscripts prior to publication (authors receive the opportunity to review such copy editing). Authors of manuscripts accepted for publication must supply camera-ready artwork for any figures accompanying their respective papers. All papers accepted for publication become the property of ISABS.

IdeaSplash

Idea, the word itself conjures up freshness, boundaryless thinking, breakthrough solutions and forging a path to the future! Ideas come in several forms and shapes – it could be just a thought based on an insight, it could be fully formed and in the process of being piloted or it could be an executed version which is now ready to scale up. While ABS Summit is a space for emergent practices anchored in academic rigour, it also honours the nascent ideas which have high potential at the Self, Team, Organisation or Community level. IdeaSplash is an unstructured space within ABS Summit, where you can share Ideas that have underpinnings of Applied Behavioral Science and is aligned to the subthemes of the summit.

If you would like to be an IdeaSplash speaker (or IdeaSplasher), please connect with us:

We will appreciatively listen to the outline and based on the merit/originality/engagement potential – decide on selection, in discussion with the academic committee.

- Selected IdeaSplashers will be coached (if required) to share their Idea rivetingly with the audience
- IdeaSplash are 12-minute sessions sprinkled across the ABS Summit. Your slot will be shared in advance
- IdeaSplash are one way presentations and are not interactive as audience will be in a mode to soak in the speaker uninterrupted. Interested audience will reach out to the speaker after the talk.

Does this sound intriguing and inviting? Well, we are waiting to engage with IdeaSplashers.
